FOR RELEASE

May 2, 1970

Kenneth A. Donohue, 34, of San Jose, California, has been named Administrative Assistant to David G. Barry, Vice President and Provost of The Evergreen State College, effective May 4.

Donohue has been an Administrative Assistant to the Executive and Academic Vice Presidents at San Jose State College since April, 1969, including brief service with Barry when the latter was Interim Executive Vice President prior to his move to Evergreen.

"Mr. Donohue will play an important role in helping the office of the Provost and the deans develop documents for academic planning," Barry said. "He will provide general administrative support for all academic programs; will assist with budget analysis, faculty analysis, and fact-finding; and also will participate in the development of proposals for federal support of academic programs."

An English major, Donohue received his bachelor of arts degree from San Jose State College in 1969. He received an associate of arts degree from San Jose City College in 1967.

Donohue and his wife, Carole, are the parents of one son, Alfred, 2.
