Mona Clark, an Olympia High School student, will present a piano recital April 25, beginning at 2 p.m. in the main lobby of The Evergreen State College Library.

Miss Clark, a student of Evergreen Faculty Musician Donald Chan, will perform the works by composers Bach, Beethoven, Debussy and Barber in her hour recital, which is free and open to the public.

The Olympia pianist last year accompanied the popular Olympia High School vocal group "The Strolling Strings," and performs regularly with the Youth Choir at the First Methodist Church. She is also a cadet piano teacher.
