Charles Chien, an eighth grader at Nisqually Middle School, will present a piano recital May 2, beginning at 8 p.m. in the main lobby of The Evergreen State College Library.

Chien, student of Evergreen Faculty Musician Donald Chan, will present works by composers Beethoven, Debussy, Gershwin and Chopin in his hour recital. The 14-year-old Nisqually youth was a first place winner in this year's Olympia piano auditions and has been selected to perform at the State Music Teachers Convention to be held at Pacific Lutheran University in June. His performance there will be featured at a "recital of recognition" honoring the state's top piano students.

Chien's Evergreen recital is free and open to the public.
