Folk and blues music "with an occasional pinch of good-time rock and roll" will come to The Evergreen State College February 26 with the appearance of the Deep Root Trio. The show will begin at 8 p.m. in the reference alcove of the Evans Library.

Composed of J.B. White, Frank Leidt, and Jody Calcara, the trio has been playing on the West Coast for the past three years. Deep Root's repertoire includes three-part vocal harmony and acoustic six- and 12-string guitars, electric base, banjo, harmonica and mandolin.

The trio, brought to the Pacific Northwest by Eye-5, will also be appearing at Pacific Lutheran University at 9 p.m., February 22; at Western State Hospital at 3 p.m. and Fort Steilacoom Community College at 8 p.m., February 23; and at the University of Puget Sound at 9 p.m., February 24.

All appearances are free and open to the public.
