

NEWS

The Evergreen State College

Olympia, Washington 98505

866-6128-2780

for immediate release

September 25, 1974

Registration for eight modular courses at The Evergreen State College begins October 2 from 9 a.m. to 7:30 pm in the Registrar's Office.

The one-credit courses, equivalent to four quarter hours of credit, are especially designed to serve adults from the immediate college service area.

Module offerings include: Search for Meaning, taught by Faculty Member Medardo Delgado; Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Faculty Member Robert Gottlieb; Selected Works of the Seattle Symphony, also taught by Gottlieb; Economics Made Fun and Relevant by Faculty Member Charles Nisbet; Introductory Chemistry, by Faculty Member Fred Tabbutt; Introduction to Philosophy by Faculty Member Willi Unsoeld; Basic Botany, by Faculty Member Al Wiedemann, and Geology and People taught by Department of Natural Resources personnel Alan Fiskdal, Ernie Artim and Kurt Othebert.

Registration hours will continue October 3 and 4 from 9 a.m. to 4 pm in the Registrar's Office. Fees for persons interested in earning academic credit as "special students" are $80 per module. Auditing students --- those not wanting formal evaluation or credit --- may enroll in the programs for $20. Interested persons should contact the Office of Admissions (866-6170) or the modular course instructors for additional information.

-30-

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

for immediate release
September 25, 1974

Registration for seven modular courses at The Evergreen State College begins October 2 from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. in the Registrar's Office.

The one-credit courses, equivalent to four quarter hours of credit, are especially designed to serve adults from the immediate college service area.

Module offerings include: Search for Meaning, taught by Faculty Member Medardo Delgao; Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Faculty Member Robert Gottlieb; Selected Works of the Seattle Symphony, also taught by Gottlieb; Economics Made Fun and Relevant by Faculty Member Charles Nisbet; Introductory Chemistry, by Faculty Member Fred Tabbutt; Basic Botany, by Faculty Member Al Wiedemann, and Geology and People taught by Department of Natural Resources personnel Alan Fiksdal, Ernie Artim and Kurt Othebert.

Registration hours will continue October 3 and 4 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Registrar's Office. Fees for persons interested in earning academic credit as "special students" are $80 per module. Auditing students --- those not wanting formal evaluation or credit --- may enroll in the programs for $20. Interested persons should contact the Office of Registrar (866-6180) or the modular course instructors for additional information.

-30-

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services