

THE EVERGREEN STATE COLLEGE

FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

JUNE 14, 2013

The program will last approximately three hours.

With 1,000 or more graduates to recognize, we ask that the audience remain seated until the Recessional has concluded. The last person recognized deserves the same support, respect and celebration as the first. Your presence is part of the graduation experience for all. Graduates, families and friends will appreciate your thoughtfulness.

The ceremony will be broadcast in the Lecture Halls and in all the Seminar II buildings (A-E), Rooms 2107 and 2109.

Hearing assisted devices are available; please see an usher.

Seating is available for individuals with disabilities.

Smoking is permitted only in designated areas.

Drugs and alcohol are not permitted.

We request that family and friends of graduates refrain from taking pictures in the roped-off section in front of the stage.

A professional photographer will photograph each graduate as they receive their diploma. After commencement, graduates can order photos online at www.gradimages.com or call (800) 424-3686.

GUEST SPEAKER

Sherman Alexie, award-winning poet, author, screenwriter and film director

Sherman Alexie was named one of The New Yorker's 20 top writers for the 21st century. The New York Times Book Review described him as "one of the major lyric voices of our time," and Men's Journal called him "the world's first fast-talking and wisecracking mediagenic American-Indian superstar."

After growing up on the Spokane Indian Reservation in Washington, Alexie's "intensity of language, passion, and energy" was recognized by a college professor. A gifted orator, Alexie tells tales of contemporary American Indian life laced with razor-sharp humor, unsettling candor and biting wit.

His first novel, Reservation Blues, won Booklist's Editors Choice Award for Fiction. His second, Indian Killer, was a New York Times Notable Book. The Toughest Indian in the World won the 2001 PEN/Malamud Award, honoring excellence in the art of storytelling. Ten Little Indians was a national bestseller and Publishers Weekly Book of the Year.

His recent books include: The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian – a 2007 National Book Award winner in Young People's Literature; the novel Flight; and Face, a collection of poems. His 2009 book of short stories, War Dances, won the PEN Faulkner Award.

Alexie wrote and produced the film, Smoke Signals, based on his book, The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven, which won the Audience Award and Filmmakers Trophy at the 1998 Sundance Film festival. In 2002 he made his directorial debut with The Business of Fancydancing. He is currently working on a sequel to The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven titled Fire with Fire and a sequel to True Diary called The Magic and Tragic Year of My Broken Thumb.

Alexie received Washington State University's top alumni award, the Regents' Distinguished Alumnus Award, recognizing his achievements as well as the importance of his Native American voice to a broad audience. He released Blasphemy, an anthology of new stories and beloved classics, in October 2012. Shortly thereafter, Kirkus Reviews, The New York Times, and NPR all included Blasphemy in their lists of the top books of 2012.

CEREMONIAL MACE

Originally a weapon used in medieval warfare by a king or great noble, the mace has become a symbol used on ceremonial occasions. As an academic device, the mace goes back to 16th-century England, when Queen Elizabeth I presented a replica of her own royal mace to the corporation of the University of Oxford in 1589. She ordered that it be used in all ceremonies to represent the royal presence and the authority granted to the university to issue degrees under the royal insignia. Since that time, it has increasingly become the custom for European, and now American, colleges and universities to use ceremonial maces during graduation exercises.

The Evergreen State College mace is a gift from the late Byron Youtz, former Academic Vice President and Provost, who donated the materials, and Faculty Member Emeritus Earle McNeil, who gave his time and talent to its creation.

The shape of the cap is suggestive of a crown and represents the principle of knowledge and experience. To remind us that such an integration is a carefully balanced blend of diverse aspects of human nature, there are four inlaid circles symbolizing four major ways of experiencing the world—thinking, feeling, intuiting and sensing—and four main characteristics of the human mind—wisdom, innocence, introspection and illumination.

THE COLLEGE MEDALLION

Medallions are traditionally worn by presidents and chancellors at ceremonial occasions. The medallion designed for Charles McCann for his inauguration in 1972 was given by Dr. McCann to the Library Archives.

The college's second medallion (which President Purce wears today) was designed in September 1994 by Spokane artist Joyce Attwood. It is fabricated of moonstone (from Nepal), paua shell (from New Zealand), turquoise, silver, copper, brass, gold and acrylic and is suspended on a 30-inch chain (from Thailand). The medallion design shows an evergreen tree with Mount Rainier and the sea in the background. It is an interpretation of the Evergreen logo, designed in 1973 by Connie Hubbard, the college's first graphic artist. In 1983, the Board of Trustees approved the "tree" as the official college emblem and it was registered with the Secretary of State as Evergreen's logo.

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

The origins of academic dress date back to the 12th and 13th centuries, when universities were taking form. The ordinary dress of the scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of a cleric. Long gowns and hoods were worn and may have been necessary for warmth in unheated buildings. Today, many institutions choose distinctively colored gowns. The design of the sleeve indicates the level of the degree earned by the wearer. Hoods have both the colors of the institution and a band indicating the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

THE GEODUCK* FIGHT SONG

1. Go, Geoducks go,
Through the mud and the sand,
let's go.
Siphon high, squirt it out,
swivel all about,
let it all hang out.
2. Go, Geoducks go,
Stretch your neck when the tide
is low,
Siphon high, squirt it out,
swivel all about,
let it all hang out.

*Malcolm Stilson's original "Geoduc" spelling was changed to "Geoduck" to reflect common current usage and Evergreen standard spelling.
