Peer Support

Supervised by professional staff, these trained students provide advocacy, referral and support during drop-in hours, as well as workshops, social/cultural events and outreach. Drop by and say hello in Library 1407C; all contacts are confidential.

Mentoring Program

You have the opportunity on request to match up with a staff or faculty member who will be your personal mentor for the year. Through regular meetings, you will benefit from the expertise of someone who's "been there."

Who are "First Peoples"?
We refer to People of Color (Native American Indians/
Alaskan Natives,
African Americans,
Chicano/Latinos,
Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders)
as First Peoples in recognition of our unique indigenous heritages.
