

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF UNIVERSITY COMPOSERS

Region IX Conference

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1977

8:00 p.m. Concert by Evergreen composers and performers: "An Evening of Movement, Sound and Images" (2nd Floor Library Lobby). General admission - $1.50, Students - $1.00, Under 12 - 50¢.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1977

9:00 a.m. - Noon Registration (Seminar Bldg.-4th Floor Lobby)

Rehearsals, informal meetings with Don Buchla, tape exchange.

Noon - 1:30 p.m. Lunch

1:30 - 3:30 p.m. (a) Session with Don Buchla on electronic instrument design and computer applications in electronic music. Question/answer period to follow and interaction with TESC electronic music studio equipment. (Sem 4155) NOTE: $5. WORKSHOP FEE PAYABLE AT TIME OF REGISTRATION.

(b) Rehearsals as needed, tape exchange, small electronic studio available for use, free time.

(c) Tour of Library/Media Production Center. (Leaves from 4th Floor Lobby of Seminar Bldg.)

3:45 - 5:00 p.m. Tour of new Communications Bldg. (Leaves from Seminar Bldg. 4th Floor Lobby)

5:00 - 8:00 p.m. Dinner

8:00 p.m. Repeat of TESC Concert: "An Evening of Movement, Sound and Images" (2nd Floor Library Lobby). General admission - $1.50, Students - $1.00, Under 12 - 50¢.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1977

Breakfast off-campus.

9:00 - Noon Registration (Seminar Bldg.-4th Floor Lobby). Rehearsals as needed for concerts (2nd Floor Library Lobby). Tape exchange, small electronic studio available.

10:00 - 11:00 (a) Ed Soule lecture: Writing Piano Teaching Pieces (2nd Floor Library Lobby)

(b) Possible continuation of session with Don Buchla or informal meetings with him. (SEM 4155)

- 11 a.m. - Noon Jerry Farmer lecture: Applications for Clarinet Multiphonics. (2nd Floor Library Lobby)
- Noon - 1:30 p.m. Lunch on campus/short business meeting for ASUC members. (CAB Cafeteria).
- Agenda: 1. Evaluation of Regional Activities
2. Regional Conference for Next Year
3. New Business
- 1:30 - 3:30 p.m. Presentation by Gordon Mumma and Don Buchla on "Aspects of Live Electronic Music" (2nd Floor Library Lobby or SEM 4155 depending on last minute equipment needs.)
- 4:00 p.m. ASUC and Northwest Student Composers' Symposium Concert (2nd Floor Library Lobby). No charge.
- 5:30 - 8:00 p.m. Dinner off-campus
- 8:00 p.m. ASUC Regional Concert (2nd Floor Library Lobby) No Charge.

April 7, 1977

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF UNIVERSITY COMPOSERS
Region IX

Greg Steinke, Co-Chairman
The Evergreen State College
SEM 3156
Olympia, Washington 98505
(206)866-6005 or 866-6017
Home: (206)943-5172

Gordon Muma, Co-Chairman
Kresge College
University of California, S.C.
Santa Cruz, California 95064
(408)429-2030 or 429-2292
Home: (408)425-1593

Dear Fellow ASUC'ers:

Just a short note to bring you all up to date on the upcoming regional, and to urge ~~the~~ ^{those} of you who haven't decided to come yet to come as it looks like a very good regional overall.

The overall schedule looks as follows:

April 27-28 -- Don Buchla on campus to work with Evergreen students and with any ASUC members who wish to come early. (Please be in touch with me immediately if you plan to come early.)

April 28 -- TESC Concert: An Evening of Movement, Sound, and Images. Second Floor Library Lobby.

April 29 -- 9:00 A.M.-Noon: Arrival, registration (Seminar Building 4168), rehearsals, informal meetings with Don Buchla tape exchange (playbacks of each other's tapes).

Note: THOSE ARRIVING BY PLANE HAVE NOTE ENCLOSED WITH THIS ADVISING OF HOW YOU WILL BE MET.

Noon-1:30 P.M.: Lunch on your own at campus cafeteria (Campus Activities Building).

1:30-3:30 P.M.: (a)* Session with Don Buchla on electronic instrument design and computer applications in electronic music, with question/answer period and interaction with TESC electronic music studio equipment.

*Note: Anyone participating in Buchla sessions will need to pay $5 workshop fee.

(b) Rehearsals as needed, tape exchange, small electronic studio available for use, free time, etcetera.

4 p.m.: Tour of Comm. Bldg.

5:00-8:00 P.M.: Dinner on your own at campus cafeteria or off-campus.

8:00 P.M.: Repeat of TESC Concert: An Evening of Movement, Sound, and Images.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF UNIVERSITY COMPOSERS
Page Two

April 30 -- Breakfast on your own off-campus (restaurant near Motel 6 for those people).

9:00 A.M.-Noon: Rehearsals as needed for concerts in Library lobby, tape exchange, small electronic studio available.

~~10:00-11:00 A.M.:~~ (a) Ed Soule lecture on writing small compositions for piano.

Tentative: (b) Jerry Farmer lecture on new techniques for clarinet.

(c) Possible continuation of session with Don Buchla or informal meetings with him.

~~11:00 A.M.-Noon:~~ Tour of new communications building for those interested. (Our new performing arts facility for use next fall.)

Noon-1:30 P.M.: Lunch on campus/short business meeting (Campus Activities Building 108).

Agenda: 1. Evaluation of Regional Activities
2. Regional Conference for Next Year
3. New Business

1:30-3:30 P.M.: Presentations by Gordon Mumma and Don Buchla (either jointly or together) on "Aspects of Live-Electronic Music."

4:00 P.M.: ASUC and Northwest Student Composers' Symposium Concert in Second Floor Library Lobby with works of students from University of Oregon, Western Washington State College, The Evergreen State College, Pacific Lutheran University.

5:30-8:00 P.M.: Buffet dinner with wine in Campus Activity Building @ approximately $6 plus $1-2 for wine if desired.

8:00 P.M.: ASUC Regional Concert in Second Floor Library Lobby with works by Peter Socco, Ed Soule, Honer Keller (?), William Billingsley, Sandra Hahn, Gordon Mumma, Greg Steinke, and film or composition by Don Buchla.

(After concert gathering will be held at the Steinke household with drinks and food, good conversation, etcetera. Transportation will be provided from campus for those who need it.)

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF UNIVERSITY COMPOSERS
Page Three

If anyone decides at the last moment to come, just get in touch with me or return slip at bottom of page, especially if you need motel or dorm accomodations and/or if you plan to attend the buffet dinner. Otherwise just come ahead. If anyone has ideas for next year, but won't be in attendance at the conference, please drop me a note right away so your ideas can be shared at the conference business meeting.

I'm sure that there may be something I've forgotten; so, if I haven't answered a question, just get in touch with me.

Best wishes and good composing,

Greg Steinke, for the Co-Chairman

GS:hil

(Form below only needs to be returned if you haven't already been in touch.)

NAME:	ADDRESS:	PHONE:
I plan to attend/to not attend regional	I need a reservation at Motel 6 yes/no.
I plan to attend/not attend buffet dinner.	Rates/Tax: 1 person - $ 9.41 2/2 beds - $13.61 2/1 bed - $11.51 3-4/2 beds - $15.71
I will be flying -- yes/no and need to be met -- flight # _____ @ _____ at Sea-Tac Airport.	I need dorm room, yes/no. with linen - $4.75 w/o - $3.75

I am interested in the Buchla sessions: yes/no. I would be interested in a private session with Don at the regional: yes/no.

Return to: Greg Steinke
SEM 3156
The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

PLEASE RETURN AND HAVE IN MAIL NO LATER THAN APRIL 15th.