

1991

The Evergreen State College

The 1991 Graduating Class chose to have the Redstone Drum, a group of American Indian drummers and singers, perform the processional song for today's ceremony.

*The Drum is under the care of Mac Silverhorn. He will be assisted by John Donovan, Roger Jackson, Tom
Gardner, Xavier Little Owl,
Jim Young, and Joey Young.*

The Drum's voice,
Deep and resonantly beautiful,
Renews our memory as sacred beings
Reminding us of our shared journey on Earth, Our Mother.

Today we will combine our songs and hearts
With the Thunder voice of the Drum
Sending our prayers out
Asking our Creator to bless our ceremony and our future endeavors.

The Graduating Class wishes to express its appreciation to the Evergreen Indian Center for obtaining the Redstone Drum.

Guest Speaker Robert Fulghum

In the Fall of 1988, Robert Fulghum's first book, All I Really Need To Know I Learned In Kindergarten, rose to the number one spot on the New York Times Best Seller List; it remained on that list for more than ninety weeks. When his second collection of essays, It Was On Fire When I Lay Down On It, appeared in the bookstores, it, too, rose to the top of the NYT's list. For many weeks, the two books were number one and number two; no other author before has occupied the top two positions on this list simultaneously. To date, Mr. Fulghum's books have been published in twenty languages and distributed in ninety-two countries. More than four million copies of Kindergarten have been distributed in the United States alone.

Robert Fulghum was born in 1937 and grew up in Waco, Texas. For the last twenty-eight years he has made his home in Washington state. In his time, he has been a newspaper boy, a ditch digger, a singing cowboy, a ranch hand, a rodeo rider, and for a short period, he was employed as an IBM salesman. He has spent some time teaching folk music -he plays the guitar, bass and mando 'cello. For twenty years, Mr. Fulghum taught drawing, painting and philosophy at the Lakeside School in Seattle. He is a painter and sculptor in his own right, and has exhibited his work in several galleries. His leisure time is frequently occupied with backpacking, sailing and sea kayaking.

Mr. Fulghum is an ordained parish minister and has been affiliated with the Unitarian Church for many years. In the early 1970s, he lived in Japan and studied in a Zen Buddhist Monastery. He has traveled the world and has spent time living in Thailand, Greece and France.

Public Television produced a special with Robert Fulghum and friends titled, Fulghum's After Dinner. Throughout 1990, it was shown on public broadcasting channels. During that same year, Mr. Fulghum was one of six finalists nominated for a Grammy Award in the category of Best Spoken Word for the audio tape of All I Really Need To Know I Learned in Kindergarten. Earlier in 1990, he was awarded the Washington State Governor's Award for Literature. In February 1990, Mr. Fulghum appeared as a guest conductor with the Minneapolis Chamber Symphony. He conducted the last movement of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. Mr. Fulghum and the Minneapolis Chamber Symphony are planning to collaborate once again. A new work has been commissioned for narrator, chorus and orchestra; it will make its World Premiere in Minneapolis in September 1991.

Mr. Fulghum has accepted a position as a Visiting Fellow and Scholar in Residence with Oberlin College in Ohio for the 1991 Fall semester. During the rest of the year, he will lecture on college and university campuses, and continue to accept speaking invitations from a variety of organizations and corporations. Mr. Fulghum will address the National Governor's Conference in August 1991.

Mr. Fulghum has graciously donated his honraium towards the 1991 Class Gift.

1991 Class Gift

The class will donate the proceeds of the class gift to the College's Library and the Child Sexual Assault Clinic at St. Peter's Hospital in Olympia.

Geoduc Fight Song

1. Go, Geoducs go,
 Through the mud and the sand,
 let's go.
 Siphon high, squirt it out,
 swivel all about,
 let it all hang out.
2. Go, Geoducs go,
 Stretch your neck when the tide
 is low.
 Siphon high, squirt it out,
 swivel all about,
 let it all hang out.

The Evergreen State College Ceremonial Mace

Originally a weapon of offense used in medieval warfare by a king or a great noble, the mace has been refined into a symbolic device used on ceremonial occasions. As an academic device, the mace goes back to 16th century England when Queen Elizabeth I presented a replica of her own royal mace to the corporation of the University of Oxford in 1589. She ordered that it be used in all ceremonies to represent the royal presence and the authority granted to the university to issue degrees under the royal insignia. King Charles I made a similar gift to Cambridge University in 1625. Since that time, it has become increasingly the custom for European, and now American, colleges and universities to use ceremonial maces during graduation exercises.

The Evergreen State College ceremonial mace was carried at the head of the commencement procession for the first time during the 1982 graduation. The mace is rich in symbolism. Beginning with a square core of Eastern Maple, narrow strips of laminated maple and walnut are attached to the core in a cross design. At the open corners, bubinga, a wood red in color and rich in grain, is inserted. The resulting three-foot column was lathed round and represents the tree of life. Nine grooves inlaid with copper denote the nine levels of life from animal spirit to enlightenment. The copper bands suggest the bonding forces of life.

The cap of the Mace was turned from a single block of locally grown black walnut. The shape is suggestive of a crown and represents the principal integration of knowledge and experience. To remind us that such an integration is a carefully balanced blend of diverse aspects of human nature, there are inlaid four circles symbolizing the four major ways of experiencing the world: thinking, feeling, intuiting and sensing, and the four main characteristics of the human mind: wisdom, innocence, introspection, and illumination.

Incorporated into this crown is a unique feature: the center is hollow and has in it a sealed vial. It is intended that each year the graduation planning committee will have written one page, to be microfilmed and placed in the vial. Each year the committee will examine the document placed in the mace for the class ten years before and include in the ceremony some short reflection on that piece. The intention is that the mace is part of a living event that connects us to our past, demonstrates our belief and faith in our future and maintains a connection between the two.

The Evergreen State College Mace is the gift of former Academic Vice President and Provost, Byron Youtz, who donated the materials and faculty member, Earle McNeil, who gave his time and talent to its creation.
