HAPPENINGS FROM THE THIRD WORLD COALITION - MARCH 1979

By April West

INDIAN AWARENESS DAYS

Native American Student Association (NASA) will be sponsoring their Indian Awareness Days, March 5th - 9th in Lecture Hall 4.

Speakers and workshops are scheduled to happen throughout all five days. Subject areas will include: treaty rights, Indians in the media, and Indian women in the movement. An exact schedule has not been determined at press time. However, the public is welcome and encouraged to attend.

For further information, contact Bunny Charles at NASA, 866-6024.

ONGI WARE

A slide presentation on Korean ONGI ware and other Korean pottery will be given in The Corner - A Dorm, March 1, from 6-8p.m. The Asian Coalition will host the showing and plan on a potluck dinner at the same time. ALL are invited and admittance requires you to bring an Asian dish.

STUDENT POLL

Several surveys have been completed and returned regarding Third World students' workshop interests. Of the ones returned, Tuesday or Wednesday at noon appears to be the best time and workshops on curriculum development, faculty hiring process, grant writing and learning active listening skills seem to be the most popular.

PLEASE take the time to respond and return the surveys. Even if you are off campus and couldn't take advantage of the workshops, we need to know what students are interested in learning about. If you have not received one, please let us know, 866-6034, Library 3204, T.E.S.C. 98505.

WHAT IS THE FACULTY HIRING PROCESS?

Our first workshop has been scheduled to address this question, as well as how curriculum is designed. TUESDAY, March 6th at NOON in Library 3205, faculty member, Rudy Martin will outline the process for us. Suggestions as to how to impact the process will also be discussed.

THIS IS A VERY IMPORTANT ISSUE, if you are interested, please adjust your schedule to do so. Many complaints are made regarding faculty and curriculum; here is our opportunity to educate ourselves and do something about it!

MINORITY AND THIRD WORLD WOMEN CONFERENCE

Pacific Lutheran University (PLU) is hosting a conference March 3-4 on minority and Third World women. The program will offer panels and speakers on such issues as women and the Black church, American Indian women, social services and Asian/Pacific people, domestic violence, refugee women, as well as others. Information tables and films will also be featured throughout the two days. An intercultural fair is offered Saturday for a small admittance fee in the University Center. For more information, contact Kathleen Blumhagen, Dept. of Sociology, PLU, Tacoma, WA. 98447.

¿QUIÉRE APRENDER ESPAÑOL?

We are looking for other students interested in a day Spanish class starting next quarter. We have located an instructor, we also need other people who have had some knowledge of the language to join us. IS THERE ANYONE? Call Sue Ybarra, 866-6033.

HUELGA!

An announcement has been made that the United Farm Workers Union (UFW) will be striking in the Imperial Valley of California. The principle produce there being lettuce. No official declaration of a boycott has been announced.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

March 2, 1921, Washington State Alien Land Law passed forbidding Japanese to own land.

March 16, 1968, MY LAI massacre. 567 VN civilians murdered by US soldiers.
