King County high school seniors and their parents have been invited to get acquainted with The Evergreen State College April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Ballroom of the University Towers Hotel, 4507 Brooklyn N.E.

Entitled an "Evergreen Preview," the informal evening session is designed to introduce prospective Evergreen students and their parents --- as well as area high school counselors and principals --- to the college's facilities, programs and faculty.

The evening program begins at 7:30 p.m. and will feature introductory remarks by Evergreen Admissions Director Ken Mayer, followed by comments from representatives of Evergreen's offices of financial aid, veterans affairs, registrar, housing and academic programs.

Refreshments will be served. Additional information may be obtained from the Evergreen Admissions Office, 866-6170, Olympia.
