Donald G. Meyer, assistant manager of Irwin Concrete, Incorporated of Tacoma, has been named budget analyst for The Evergreen State College.

The appointment, effective August 20, was announced by Evergreen Business Manager Ken Winkley, and carries with it prime responsibility for building the college's biennial budget and helping all college budget unit heads on fiscal matters.

A graduate of Pacific Lutheran University, Meyer, 29, has a master's degree in business administration from the University of South Dakota. He has worked for the Irwin Concrete firm since August of 1971. Prior to that, he served as a construction foreman for Concrete Forming, Incorporated, also of Tacoma, and as a wood inspector for the St. Regis Paper Company in Tacoma.

Meyer also served as a data analyst in the United States Army from 1963 to 1966.
