A full evening of exotic foods and entertainment is on tap for Thurston County residents who plan ahead. Three students at The Evergreen State College are inviting the adventurous to a Samona Luau, a first for the college, and probably the county.

Diana Ameperosa, Kiku Kobata, and Tina Kruse have planned a sumptuous feast for May 8, beginning at 6 p.m. on the first floor lobby of the Evans Library Building. The feast will be accompanied by live music and dancing by the Seattle Samoan Club. "Pua", a popular Samoan/polynesian performer and dance instructor, will also entertain, and "just good dancing music" will be presented for everyone.

The Samoan feast consists of kalua pig, teriyaki chicken, rice, chopped suey, and fruit salad punch. Tickets are $6 for the general public, $5 for students, and $3 for children five to 12 years of age. Reservations may be made with Ms. Ameperosa at 866-5082 or Ms. Kruse at 866-7593.
