It's Academic Festival week at Evergreen and a wide variety of activities have been scheduled. Academic programs will have displays and demonstrations on campus Thursday and Friday, and special presentations are scheduled every night this week beginning tomorrow.

Mountaineer Faculty Member Willi Unsoeld will present a special tenth anniversary slide show of his successful climb up Mt. Everest Tuesday night at 7:30 in Lecture Hall One.

A Japanese Festival and a one-act play are scheduled Wednesday night, and Thursday will see an all-day Arts and Crafts Fair, two concerts by the Japan and the West study program, and two other evening presentations: the final spring concert by the Evergreen Chamber Orchestra will be held at 8 p.m. in the Library. The orchestra includes among its members many Olympia-area residents and is directed by Faculty Member Robert Gottlieb. The Theater Arts group contract will also present a play Thursday night at eight in the Library.

The week will be topped off with a senior lecture by Senator William Proxmire. The Wisconsin Democrat will discuss the nation's priorities at 7:30 Saturday night in Lecture Hall D Five.

All events are free and open to the public. For more detailed information, please call the College Information Center, 753-3625.
