Appointment of Karl N. Johnson, 37, of Tacoma, as Administrative Architect for The Evergreen State College was announced at a board of trustees meeting in Olympia today. He will assume his duties immediately.

Johnson will assist with detailed planning of buildings after design concepts and space determinations have been made and will serve as college construction coordinator, according to Jerry L. Schillinger, Director of Facilities Planning.

A 1955 graduate of Washington State University, where he received a bachelor's degree in architectural engineering, Johnson has been employed by the Tacoma firm of Lea, Pearson and Richards, Architects, since 1957.

Johnson, a Tacoma native, graduated from Lincoln High School in 1949 and attended Pacific Lutheran University in 1950 and 1951. After graduating from W.S.U., he served as an officer in the Air Force, receiving his discharge in 1957.

He and his wife, Claudia, are the parents of three children.
