The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 19, 1974

The Western Washington State College Symphony Orchestra will perform at The Evergreen State College April 30 at 8 p.m. in the main lobby of the Library Building.

Directed by WWSC Professor of Music Barton Frank, the 90-member symphony will present the comic overture to Donizetti's opera, "Don Pasquale," followed by the first movement of the "Brahms Double Concerto," performed by violinist Clark Story, former concert-master for the University of Colorado Symphony, and Mannfried Funk, cellist from San Francisco.

Richard Strauss' tone poem, "Don Juan," will also be performed by the all-student orchestra under Frank's direction. The music professor is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and has appeared as a soloist with more than a hundred symphonies in Canada, the United States and Mexico. He has also guest conducted major orchestras throughout the country.

The evening concert is free and open to the public.
