

Newsletter

The Evergreen State College

Published by the Office of College Relations/Library 3114

Published Friday, June 24
Office of College Relations
Next Deadline: July 22

FINAL FORMALITIES REMAIN, BUT THE CONTRACT between WashPIRG and The Evergreen State College has been signed by President Dan Evans, following approval by the Board of Trustees at its June 9 meeting. The motion to approve the contract came after requested revisions on voting and collection of S&A funds were made in the document.

In other action, the Board approved a 1983-84 Operating Budget of just over $19 million; approved a 7 percent salary increase for all exempt staff and faculty; and set a tuition increase of about 8 percent for next year as mandated by the Legislature.

The Board also heard a report on the Longhouse Project, then approved moving ahead with an Environmental Impact Statement for the proposed site, requesting that a report be made so the Board can more precisely determine what is needed to complete the EIS process.

JAMES E. SPIVEY, a former student and employee of Evergreen, died unexpectedly of a heart attack on Saturday, June 18, while traveling from Seattle to Millersylvania State Park on a group bicycle trip. Better known as Jim, Spivey would have been 45 on August 23.

A student at the college through 1976, Spivey also worked as a student in various offices, including Counseling Services, and as a staff member when he supervised the Print Shop.

A resident of Seattle and sales representative for Toledo Scales at the time of his death, Spivey is survived by a daughter, Miriam, of Biloxi, Mississippi; and three sons, James Jr., who lives in Germany; Leonard, a recent graduate of the University of Washington; and Bill, who lives with his mother, Girtha, in Tacoma.

Funeral services were held Thursday at Mountain View Gardens Cemetery in Tacoma.

"THE PLAYBOY OF THE WESTERN WORLD," the award-winning play by John Millington Synge, will be the first presentation of the Evergreen Summer Repertory Theatre.

The play, set in the Aran Islands off the western coast of Ireland, concerns the reactions of an extremely isolated community to the sudden arrival of an outsider.

The play will be presented on June 30, July 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, and 10 at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall. Tickets are $6 general admission, $4 for students and seniors and are available at the Summer Rep Box Office, Rainy Day Records, The Bookmark and the Evergreen Bookstore.

"The Playboy of the Western World," is the first of three productions scheduled by the Summer Rep. Other presentations include "Tales for Children" in July and "West Side Story" in August.

The all-student cast for "Playboy," directed by Evergreen faculty member Ruth Palmerlee, includes: Brian Silvey, Hugh Crawford, Doug Ermantraut, Mike Van Leynseele, Tom Sanders, Kenan Kelley, Randy Silvey, Sue Downing, Christene Glazewski, Dana Dunneis, Debbie Michelucci, Jill Lounsbury, Dayle Howell and Connie Simpson.

FRIDAY NIGHT FILMS will continue during the summer, except they will be presented on Thursday evenings. Films scheduled include, "Mädchen in Uniform," on June 30, "Stairway to Heaven," on July 7 and "They Live by Night," on July 14.

Tickets are $1.50. The films are shown at 7 and 9:30 p.m. in Lecture Hall 1.

THE SECOND ANNUAL CONCOURS D'ELEGANCE is attracting a large number of antique and classic car owners which should make this year's event bigger and better than last year's initial event.

Nearly 400 cars, ranging from modern Jaguars, DeLoreans and Porsches, to turn-of-the-century Fords, Reos, Packards and Maxwells will attract thousands of spectators to campus on Sunday, July 24.

Co-sponsored by The Evergreen State College Foundation and the Olympia Rotary Club, the event will include food, entertainment and a beer garden as well as the cars, making the day perfect for a family visit.

Tickets are $5 per person with children under 12 admitted free, and can be purchased on site the day of the event.

EVERGREEN WAS WELL REPRESENTED AT THE RECENTLY COMPLETED TACOMA ART MUSEUM'S JURIED PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBITION. Of four prizes awarded, Evergreen students took three, including the Purchase Award.

Evergreen student Tom Anson won the Purchase Award, and his black and white photo will be purchased by the Tacoma Art Museum for their permanent collection. Other Evergreen students taking awards were Mike Lavine and Jackie Canterbury.

Evergreen students exhibiting photos included: MaIPina Chan, Mark Shumaker, Avld Scott, Abbo Peterson and Tomas Black. All were students of Evergreen faculty members Tracy Hamby and Kirk Thompson.

THE EDITH K. DRAHAM FICTION SCHOLARSHIP FUND has been established with a major endowment gift.

A local donor, who has asked to remain anonymous, contributed 300 shares of Georgia-Pacific Corporation stock worth more than $9,000 to the college to endow the scholarship.

The Edith K. Draham Fiction Scholarship is awarded annually on the basis of financial need and demonstrated ability in fiction writing.

Continued on next page

SCHOLARSHIP, continued

"We're just delighted with this major gift," said Sue Washburn, executive director of The Evergreen State College Foundation. "This will go a long way towards helping deserving students continue their education, and it's a wonderful example we hope others will follow."

Tumwater resident Paul R. Harding has been named the 1983-84 Draham Scholar and will receive a $1,500 scholarship for the 1983-84 academic year.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EVERGREEN SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS has been made.

The Charles J. McCann Merit Scholarship, in the amount of $360, has been awarded to Deanna Lickey of Olympia.

The Haas Foundation Scholarship for $1,500 went to Hal Medrano of Olympia. Larry Gibson of Olympia was the recipient of the Roger F. Camp Memorial Scholarship for $100, while the Carlton Morris Cooley Scholarship for $500 was given to Ann L. Seldner of Olympia.

Janine Marie Thome of Seattle received the $400 Ward Bowen Memorial Scholarship and Dorothy Joan Johnson was awarded the $1,000 Ethel MacPhail Scholarship.

Two students, William Earl Ray of Tacoma and Joel A. Schmidt of Olympia received $600 Shauna May Memorial Scholarships.

FORTY 1983-84 EVERGREEN FOUNDATION SCHOLARS have been announced. Each will have his or her in-state tuition paid for the coming academic year by The Evergreen State College Foundation.

Scholars named include: Duane Anderson, Rachael Bachman, Caterine Balough, Catherine Barret, Pauline Bartashy, Margaret Baso, M. Michelle Baydo, Ellen Bigham, Lori Buker, Elizabeth Dillingham, Stephan Dimitroff, Kristin Fernald, Pablo Fernandez, Tracy Gibson, Karen Glass, Christine Hall, Kristin Hood, Robert Itzkovitz, Jeff Kennedy, Walter Kiskaddon, Toni Kovatch, Karen McCarthy, Trisha McCarty, Elin Meyer, Robert Miller, Judith Morrison, John Nudge, Anthony Nalbone, Daniel Noveck, Andrew Oakley, Ann Remsberg, Scott Saunders, Pamela Schoeder, Susan Sholin, Marcella Spence, Robert Steelquist, Kirk Van Wormer, Susan Verkamp, Andris Wollman and Peggy Zioikowski.

STAN MARSHBURN, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT, will address all classified staff on Wednesday, June 29, from 2 to 4 p.m. in Lecture Hall 3. Marshburn will speak about the recent Legislative session and what its impacts will be on employees.

SEVERAL CONFERENCES HAVE BEEN SCHEDULED ON CAMPUS this summer. Recently completed was a meeting of the Washington State Music Teachers and the Pacific Football camp.

Coming up is the Husky Football Camp which is expected to draw some 200 participants to the college next week.

Other conferences already confirmed are being held by the Pacific Rim Shellfish Association, Camp Murrieta, high school editors and the Newspaper in Education forum sponsored by Allied Daily Newspapers.

EVERGREENERS IN THE NEWS

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION COUNSELOR MIKE HALL has been named Acting Director of Student Activities to replace Lynn Garner, who is on a one-year leave of absence.

SECURITY CHIEF GARY RUSSELL has announced the promotion of three members of his department.

Promoted to Sergeant were Gil Cordova, Larry Savage and Wally Potter. Each will be in charge of a security shift crew.

WORD PROCESSING MANAGER CANDI GOODWIN isn't afraid of the freezing winters or hot summers of Minneapolis. "I'm looking forward to cross-country skiing and I'll be taking sailing lessons this July," she said.

June 17 was her last day at Evergreen before heading east to begin work as an Office Information Specialist with the Sperry Corporation in Minnesota. "I'll miss the people here and I regret not being able to finish up some of the projects I've started, but I'm really excited about my new job," she said, "It's a real pioneering situation for the company as well as for me."

Without her three years at Evergreen, she explained, "I would never have had the chance at this new opportunity." She asked that anybody traveling through the Minneapolis area to give her a buzz at the Sperry Corporation sales branch office. We wish you the best, Candi.

WEDDING CONGRATULATIONS go out to KAOS-FM Radio Manager Michael Huntsberger who married Karen Berkey on June 18 at the Unity Church in Olympia. Karen is a resident of Olympia and works at the Food Co-op.

Congratulations also to Bill Gilbreath of the Print Shop who will marry Sandra Severson, June 25 in ceremonies at Sacred Heart Church in Lacey. Sandra is a resident of Lacey.

JON GRIBSKOV, son of Evergreen faculty member Margaret Gribskov, a 1982 Evergreen graduate and now a graduate student at the University of Washington, has received two prestigious scholarships.

Gribskov was awarded the American Society of Naval Engineering Scholarship and a similar scholarship from the Puget Sound Chapter.

TAMMIE KASPER, a former Evergreen student and the 18-year old daughter of Evergreen staff member Joan Kasper in Student Accounts, has been chosen from a group of women soccer players from the seven western states to represent the United States in a world soccer tournament in Australia.

Thirteen people, including Tracy Stevens of Olympia, will be leaving from San Francisco on August 5 for two weeks of tournament play in Australia before returning to the United States by way of Tahiti.