

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 25, 1973

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

Judy Prentice, 753-3125

It's Academic Festival Week at The Evergreen State College and a wide variety of activities --- all of which are free and open to the public --- are planned.

Special activities include academic displays and demonstrations, plays presented by students in the Theater Arts Group Contract and the Human Ecology program, vocal recitals by students of Faculty Member Don Chan, and the final Spring Quarter concert of the Evergreen Chamber Orchestra under the direction of Faculty Member Robert Gottlieb.

The week in brief:

May 29 --- Willi Unsoeld presents tenth anniversary lecture/slide show on

"Everest: Ascent of the West Ridge," 7:30 p.m., Lecture Hall One.

--- Human Ecology students present "The American Dream," a play by Albee, 8 p.m., Lecture Hall Five.

--- Music Contract students present vocal recital under direction of Faculty Member Don Chan, 8 p.m., reference alcove of Library.

May 30 --- Human Ecology students present "The American Dream," 8 p.m., Lecture Hall Five.

--- Japan and the West students present a Japanese Festival (food, booths, music and dance), 9 p.m., Central Campus Plaza.

May 31 --- Arts and Crafts Fair, Central Campus Plaza, All Day.

-more-

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services

- Clam Chowder Feed, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Central Campus Plaza.
- Japan and West students present Koto Concert, noon, Central Campus Plaza.
- Japan and the West students present a Shakuhachi concert, 7 p.m., by the Clock Tower.
- Theater Arts students present "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Not Dead," and scenes from "Hamlet" and "Othello", 8 p.m., fourth floor of the Library.
- Evergreen Chamber Orchestra, including Evergreen students and Olympia-area musicians, presents final Spring Quarter Concert under direction of Faculty Member Robert Gottlieb, 8 p.m., main lobby of the Library.

June 1 --- Theater Arts students present "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Not Dead," and scenes from "Hamlet" and "Othello," 8 p.m., fourth floor of the Library.

June 2 --- Senator William Proxmire (D-Wis.) discuss the nation's priorities, 7:30 p.m., Lecture Hall One.

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 25, 1973

For Further Information:
Judy Prentice, 753-3125

The Evergreen State College Chamber Orchestra, directed by Faculty Member Robert Gottlieb, will present a free public Spring Concert, starting at 8 p.m. May 31 in the main lobby of the Daniel J. Evans Library Building.

The Chamber Orchestra--featuring a mixture of Evergreen musicians and high school students and other residents of the Olympia-Lacey-Tumwater area--will present seven numbers during the program. They include:

"Trumpet Sonata in D Major", by Domenico Gabrielli; "Oboe Concerto in G Major", by D. Dittersdorf; "Aria 'Che faro' from Orfeo", by G. W. Gluck; "Aria 'Ho perduto' from Rodelinda", by Handel; "Recit. and Aria from Dido and Aeneas", by H. Purcell; "Concerto Grosso with Piano Obligato", by E. Bloch; and "Rumanian Folk Dances", by B. Bartok.

Jayne Austin, a 16-year-old junior at Olympia High School, will be the featured piano soloist for the Spring Concert. Miss Austin, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Austin of Olympia, has studied piano for eight years. She has performed in numerous music contests throughout Southwest Washington, receiving several superior ratings. Also a violinist, Miss Austin is a member of the Olympia High School Orchestra and Strolling Strings and has played with the Tacoma Youth Symphony for the last three years.

Other featured solists for the Spring Concert include trumpeter Wayne Timmerman, Director of Music at Olympia High School, and Evergreen students Eleanor Hite, oboist; Patty Lott, mezzo soprano; and Mary Zamora, soprano.

Orchestra conductor Gottlieb joined the Evergreen faculty last September after ten years of teaching music at the University of California at Riverside. During that time, he conducted the Riverside University-Community Orchestra and also taught in India under a Fulbright Lectureship and through a grant from the American Institute of Indian Studies.

(more)

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services

Dr. Gottlieb received his bachelor's degree in music from Yale University, his master's from the University of California at Berkeley, and his doctorate from the University of Southern California.