The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

for immediate release

April 2, 1974

The Evergreen State College Jazz Ensemble will present two public concerts in the Twin Cities Wednesday (April 3).

Directed by Evergreen Faculty Member Don Chan, the 22-member Ensemble will present two one-hour concerts: one at 9:50 a.m. at W.F. West High School, Chehalis, and another at noon at Centralia College.

The performances will feature Olympia saxophonist Chuck Stentz and the works of jazz composers Woody Herman, Thad Jones, Mel Lewis, Maynard Ferguson and Kim Richmond.

Both events are free and open to the public.
