RE: Native American Study Circle

I want to remind you of this week's Native American Study Circle.

David Whitener invites you to join him to discuss "The Concept of Home In Native American Thought" at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 28, in Library 3112 (the Board Room).

I have heard only good things about our first two Study Circles -- presented by Rob Cole and Terry Tafoya -- and hope that many of you can gather with David on Thursday afternoon.
