The Tacoma Youth Symphony will present a complimentary concert at The Evergreen State College May 20 at 3 p.m. in the main lobby of the Evans Library.

The symphony, which was one of two selected to represent the United States at The International Festival of Youth Orchestras in Switzerland in 1970, is conducted by C. Irvine Wright, director of the Olympia High School orchestra and supervisor of string instruments in the Olympia elementary schools.

More than 100 young musicians from grades nine through twelve, including 25 from the Olympia area, will be performing.

Program for the afternoon concert includes:

Two Dances from The Bartered Bride by Smetana;

First Movement of Brahms' Double Concerto (featuring Susan Ager on violin and Pamela Roberts on cello);

And God Created Great Whales by Alan Hovhaness;

Serenade for Tenor, Horn and Strings by Benjamin Britten (featuring Dr. Tommy Goleeke, tenor and professor of voice at the University of Puget Sound, and Lawrence Johnson, a sophomore at UPS, on horn);

1812 Overture by Tchaikovsky.
