Laura Thomas, formerly an office supervisor in The Evergreen State College Registrar's Office, has been named a financial aid counselor at Evergreen. The appointment, effective immediately, was announced by Evergreen Director of Financial Aid William Smith.

Mrs. Thomas, who also served as interim registrar at Evergreen from August 1973 to March 1974, will perform need analyses and assess financial need, package awards and make revisions for all state, federal and institutional financial aid programs in her new position.

Prior to joining Evergreen's staff in 1970, Mrs. Thomas served as a secretary to the Director of Financial Aid and Placement at Highline Community College. She has also worked as a supervising secretary in Okanogan, Washington elementary schools and as a bookkeeper.
