

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98501 753-2780

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 10, 1971

Arnold Jay Doerksen, 31, of Renton has been named Purchasing Agent for The Evergreen State College at Olympia, it was announced today by Director of Business Services Ron Hoffman.

The appointment of Doerksen, who has been a purchasing specialist with The Boeing Company since 1969, is effective February 16.

Doerksen received his bachelor of arts degree in English Literature from Bethel College, St. Paul, Minnesota in 1962 and is now completing work on a master of business administration degree at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma.

He became an assistant buyer for the Emporium in St. Paul, Minnesota in 1964, assumed a similar position with The Bon Marche in Seattle in 1965, and joined Boeing as a lead buyer in 1966.

Doerksen and his wife Gail are the parents of two children, Stephen, 18 months, and Sheryl, three months.

#

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services