

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

for immediate release
January 20, 1976

for further information
Judy Annis, 866-6128

Auditions for a multi-media production "A Woman Is Talking to Death" have been scheduled by the Theater of the Unemployed for January 26 from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Olympia Community Center (1314 East 4th); and January 27 from 7 to 10 p.m. at The Evergreen State College, room 202 of the College Activities Building.

Theater of the Unemployed is a group of young thespians, many of whom are Evergreen students or alumni. The group is seeking a cast of nine women and seven men to perform mime as well as speaking parts in the play, which was written by poet Judy Grahn. The play is slated for performances early this Spring. Rehearsals begin the first of February. Technical assistance in arts, graphics, film, audio and photography is also sought. Interested persons are invited to contact Theater of the Unemployed at 357-8323.

The Theater group is also sponsoring reading groups to discuss Bertolt Brecht's plays and dramatic theory on Sundays, beginning January 25 at 8 p.m. at 1103 West 6th. The January 25 group will discuss the "Three Penny Opera with Evergreen students who plan to perform the play the first week in March.

A skills sharing workshop on the art of comedy will also be sponsored by Theater of the Unemployed Mondays, beginning February 2, from 7 to 8 p.m. at the Community Center. Mark Blumenfeld will direct the workshops, which cost $1 each session.

-30-

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services