GUEST SPEAKER

Stephanie Coontz teaches at The Evergreen State College in Olympia, Washington. A former Woodrow Wilson fellow, she has also taught at Kobe University in Japan and the University of Hawaii at Hilo. She serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of Family History and Frontiers, and is a Faculty Scholar for the National Faculty. In 1995 she received the Dale Richmond Award from the American Academy of Pediatrics for her "outstanding contributions to the field of child development."

Professor Coontz wrote The Way We Really Are: Coming to Terms with America's Changing Families, (Basic Books, 1997). Her previous book, The Way We Never Were: American Families and the Nostalgia Trap, placed her at the center of the family values debate in American politics. Her work has been featured in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post and Newsweek. She has appeared on Oprah Winfrey, Crossfire, CNN's Talk Back Live, CBS This Morning, as well as in several prime-time television documentaries, including ones hosted by Walter Cronkite and Barbara Walters.

Professor Coontz edited with Maya Parson and Gabrielle Raley America's Families: A Multicultural Reader (Routledge 1999). She won the Washington Governor's Writers Award in 1989 for The Social Origins of Private Life: A History of American Families, a book that has since been translated into German. She co-authored, with Peta Henderson, Women's Work, Men's Property: On the Origins of Gender and Class, a book also available in French and Spanish. She is currently working on the changing issues associated with childrearing/becoming an adult in American society.

TAPED MESSAGE

Mumia Abu-Jamal is an award-winning journalist and author. In addition to numerous essays, he has written two books; Live from Death Row, and Death Blossoms. His views on our political and legal system, the power and influence of the mass media, as well as his reflections on the connections between issues surfaced by radical movements which have become the norms now embraced by the majority, have brought him international recognition.

In 1981, Mumia was convicted of the murder of a Pennsylvania police officer and is currently imprisoned on death row. The controversy surrounding his trial has fueled the passions of supporters and detractors alike. However, to many he represents optimism despite shackles, strength despite the destruction caused by racism and hatred, and caring that goes beyond controversy. It is this optimism and strength that is represented in Mumia Abu-Jamal's taped message.

MUSIC PROVIDED BY TWO NATIVE AMERICAN DRUM BANDS: COAST SALISH DRUM AND DANCE GROUP AND NORTHERN SPIRIT DRUM GROUP

This program will last approximately three hours.

Hearing assisted devices are available; please see an usher. Seating is available for individuals with disabilities.

We ask all those attending to please refrain from smoking during the ceremony.

We request that family and friends of graduates refrain from taking pictures in the roped-off section in front of the stage.

Key administrators will be available for photographs at the reception immediately following the ceremony.

We ask the audience to remain seated until the Recessional has been completed.

CEREMONIAL MACE

Originally a weapon used in medieval warfare by a king or great noble, the mace has become a symbol used on ceremonial occasions. As an academic device, the mace goes back to 16th-century England, when Queen Elizabeth I presented a replica of her own royal mace to the corporation of the University of Oxford in 1589. She ordered that it be used in all ceremonies to represent the royal presence and the authority granted to the university to issue degrees under the royal insignia. Since that time, it has become increasingly the custom for European, and now American, colleges and universities to use ceremonial maces during graduation exercises.

The Evergreen State College mace is a gift from the late Byron Youtz, former Academic Vice President and Provost, who donated the materials, and faculty member Earle McNeil, who gave his time and talent to its creation.

The shape of the cap is suggestive of a crown and represents the principle of knowledge and experience. To remind us that such an integration is a carefully balanced blend of diverse aspects of human nature, there are inlaid four circles symbolizing four major ways of experiencing the world— thinking, feeling, intuiting and sensing — and four main characteristics of the human mind— wisdom, innocence, introspection and illumination.

THE COLLEGE MEDALLION

Medallions are traditionally worn by presidents and chancellors at ceremonial occasions. The medallion designed for Charles McCann for his inauguration in 1972 was given by Dr. McCann to the Library Archives.

The College's second medallion (which President Jervis wears today) was designed for her installation in September 1994 by Spokane artist Joyce Attwood. It is fabricated of moonstone (from Nepal), paua shell (from New Zealand), turquoise, silver, copper, brass, gold and acrylic and is suspended on a 30-inch chain (from Thailand). The medallion design shows an evergreen tree with Mount Rainier and the sea in the background. It is an interpretation of the Evergreen logo, designed in 1973 by Connie Hubbard, the College's first graphic artist. In 1983, the Board of Trustees approved the "tree" as the official college emblem and it was registered with the Secretary of State as Evergreen's logo.

ACADEMIC COSTUMES

The origins of academic dress date back to the 12th and 13th centuries, when universities were taking form. The ordinary dress of the scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of a cleric. Long gowns and hoods were worn and may have been necessary for warmth in unheated buildings. Today, many institutions choose distinctively colored gowns. The design of the sleeve indicates the level of the degree earned by the wearer. Hoods have both the colors of the institution and a band indicating the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

ALMA MATER

GEODUC FIGHT SONG

Omnia Extares, Omnia Extares
Alma Mater, Evergreen
Omnia Extares

1. Go, Geoducs go,
Through the mud and the sand,
let's go.
Siphon high, squirt it out,
swivel all about,
let it all hang out.
2. Go, Geoducs go,
Stretch your neck when the tide
is low,
Siphon high, squirt it out,
swivel all about,
let it all hang out.
