The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

for immediate release

February 15, 1974

An Olympia woman, Kathleen (Kay) Atwood, has been named interim financial aid counselor for The Evergreen State College Office of Financial Aid and Placement. The appointment, announced by Les Eldridge, director of Evergreen's FA&P office, is effective immediately and carries with it primary responsibility for working with students seeking financial aid.

The position is funded only through June 30 of this year, Eldridge said.

Ms. Atwood, who has served as an office assistant in Financial Aid since last July, is a graduate of Portland State University and North Thurston High School. Her work experience includes serving as a receptionist and business assistant for an Olympia dentist and as a clerk typist for the Department of Social and Health Services.
