Representatives from seven major businesses and industries and two graduate schools have been invited to an all day Business and Industry Job and Graduate School Information Day February 4 at The Evergreen State College.

Sponsored by the Evergreen Office of Career Planning and Placement, the day-long session will feature representatives from the American Society of Women Accountants, the Skokomish Indian Tribe, Seattle First National Bank, International Business Machines, Dun and Bradstreet, Incorporated, the Weyerhaeuser Corporation and Group Health Cooperative. These representatives will co-lead workshops for Evergreen students on the job market, resume writing, job search and interviewing skills.

Graduate school representatives from the University of Washington and Pacific Lutheran University will also be on hand to co-lead a workshop on graduate school exploration and to discuss their specific programs in business administration.
