More than 250 off-campus supervisors of student interns from The Evergreen State College have been invited to a half-day workshop on the college campus Feb. 16.

Representing all segments of business, governmental agencies, and public and private service organizations, the off-campus supervisors will hear a discussion of Evergreen's Cooperative Education program by its director, Ken Donohue, and will be welcomed to the college by President Charles J. McCann.

Olympia City Supervisor G. Eldon Marshall, will serve as guest speaker for the event scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. in Room 110 of the Collège Activities Building. Purpose of the workshop is to "acquaint supervisors with the educational objectives and teaching methodology of both the college and the internship program," according to Donohue, who is coordinating the conference.
