HAPPENINGS FROM THE THIRD WORLD COALITION - MARCH 1981

CAN YOU DEAL WITH A SISTER?

Can you deal with a Sister
Who's got nappy hair and big lips and a flat nose and skinny legs and a high behind and a big mouth?

Who's righteously indignant about what Mr. Charlie and Miss Anne did to her and about what you did to her too?

Who found out about survival but hasn't had much experience with chivalry and etiquette and luxury and cooing on a pedestal?

Who somehow found time to read some books and shed a lot of tears and finds it easier to scowl than to smile sweetly? can you deal with a Sister?

Can you deal with a Sister
Who never missed a visiting day even though she lived a hundred miles away from that place?

Who already swallowed her pride too often so you could feel more like what they said a man is supposed to be?

Who put her hands on her hips and her finger out front when she realized that somebody had to take care of our business?

Who can't settle for what she used to want 'cause she knows that yesterday always changes tomorrow?

Can you deal with a Sister?

Can you deal with a Sister
Who's fat from a steady diet of potatoes in flour gravy and rice with some neckbones or chicken when she could get it real cheap?

Who's proud of all her children - the ones who have Ph.D.'s and the ones who are just a little bit more comfortable than she is now?

Who can't get welfare anymore 'cause the kids are grown but who's too old to train and can't get social security 'cause Miss Anne wasn't required to have household help covered?

Who looks older than she really is and has too much pride to ask much from her college educated son who doesn't drop by too often anymore even though she can't get a job and her hands hurt and she cries sometimes?

Can you deal with a Sister?

Can you deal with a Sister
Who is still devoting her life to making sure that your sons and daughters know that they do have a history and a culture?

Who knows that the postponement of all the dreams she used to have for herself is probably permanent since she's the only hope the children have?

Who has to sing Precious Lord take my hand 'cause she needs somebody and none of the people she can be sure exist are around?

Who knows that she is better off with no man/father/brother/lover/husband/son if she can't have a Brother who's ready for building/loving/creating/living/being together?

Can you deal with a Sister?

Excerpts from a poem by Dorothy Parrish

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

March 8 marks the day set aside to recognize the labor struggles of women around the world. It has become more and more a day of celebration and exposure of the knowledge and culture of women.

Women in the Olympia area have come together and planned events commemorating Internaional Women's Day. The events will take place

Saturday, March 7, at the Community Center on Fourth Street. The day will start at lpm, with lunch-type foods available at a variety of international food booths. Two to four o'clock is the scheduled time for the program.

There will be speakers, demonstrations of singing and dancing, and other cultural activities from around the world. All will be done by women. For further information, please call Kathy Pruitt at 352-7645.

ASIAN/PACIFIC SOCIAL NIGHT

The Asian/Pacific Coalition will hold their third annual SOCIAL NIGHT, March 4. It will take place in the Corner of A Dorm from 7pm to midnight.

There will be plate lunch dinners available which will include: shoyu chicken, sweet 'n sour pork with vegetables, vegetable and pork won ton, moyashi (sesame with bean sprouts), rice, and macaroni salad.

The cost of the plate will be from $2.50 to $3.00. All the proceeds will go back into the budget for future activities. Come out and enjoy the food! For more information, call 866-6033.

IMAGES IN CEDAR YOU WENT ON THE STATE OF THE

There will be a reception for Aleut artist, John Hoover, Saturday, February 28 from 2-5pm, in the fourth floor gallery of the Library building. This will herald the artist's exhibit of sculpture, which will be on display through March 22. Gallery hours are: 12-6pm weekdays, 1-5pm weekends, and the admission is FREE.

ARTIST REPRINTS

Reproductions have been made of a drawing by artist, Issac Shamsudin. Shamsudin, a Portland muralist, had an exhibit of his work on display last year at TESC. For those who would be interested in purchasing a copy of the print, contact Sid White at 866-6075.

FACULTY HIRING

Somehow, through these austere times, money has been found to hire additional faculty for the fall. If you know of people who meet the qualifications and would be interested, please let them know. The positions are in the areas of:

Management: To teach upperdivision students at the Vancouver campus.

Health: Public health and behavioral sciences. Prefer person interested in alternative health care, multicultural issues with a systems approach.

Qualifications: minimum of a Master's degree, Ph.D., or equivalent preferred.

Applications are due by April 9, 1981, which consist of: resume, two or more letters each from both students and colleagues, and a brief essay on philosophy of education, as it would relate to TESC. All materials should address teaching ability, disciplinary and interdisciplinary competence. Send applications to: Barbara Smith,

Academic Dean TESC Olympia, WA 98505

CAB UTILIZATION DTF

This DTF has been formulated to revise building use policies. The CAB building, the hub of student activity, has recentl gone through many changes without a master plan of development or change in building use policies. There has constantly been talk about remodeling the CAB, to include all the student organizations within the building, to be closer to the Activities office. This has been a subject of controversy for the Third World student groups.

This idea of moving the student organizations to the CAB will be one of the issues addressed by the DTF, who will need to make recommendations on it. It is important that there be Third World input in this DTF, and there currently is no representation. If you are at all interested, please contact Larry Stenberg at 866-6296.

ALBERT SMALLS III

We would like to introduce to all Third World folks, Albert Smalls III, the new Admissions Counselor/Minority Recruiter. Albert has been at TESC since January 27 and is still orienting himself to TESC. Albert, who is originally from San Diego, California, first found himself in Washington state while attending Whitman College in Walla Walla. He graduated from there in 1977 with a degree in Psychology and ended up in Boston working for a management consultant firm. After three years, the Pacific Northwest pulled him back and has brought him to where he is now; a very welcome addition to the Third World community at TESC. If you get a chance, stop by and tell him hello.
