Nigerian fabrics, farming tools and musical instruments are all part of an exhibit currently on display in The Evergreen State College Library.

The exhibit is the work of Evergreen students who spent the past several months living in Nigeria as part of their academic study program, "Africa and the U.S."

On display through April 22, the show includes a variety of cultural items from the Ibo tribe of Nigeria. Among them are colorful handwoven fabrics and mats, royal beads and caps, herbs and foods, printed almanacs, drums and shakers, soaps, daggers and pottery.

The Evergreen Library is open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday; 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday; and 1 to 9 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free.
