

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505 ~~753-2780~~

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 8, 1972

Scenes from four dramatic classics and an original one-act play will be presented in the final Fall Quarter performance by The Evergreen State College group contract in Drama and Theater Arts at 8 p.m., December 13 on the fourth floor of the Daniel J. Evans Library building.

Featured will be a play "Turf" by Doug Ellis, a second year student from Seattle, along with scenes from "MacBeth," "Death of a Salesman," "Night" and "Antigone."

The performance which is under the direction of Faculty Member Ainiara Wilder is free and open to the public.

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services