Jill Ward, a graduating fourth-year student at The Evergreen State College, will open a one-woman show in the reference alcove of the Evans Library April 16.

The two-week exhibit will show the Portland, Oregon student's growth as an artist over the past seven years and will include sumi paintings, black and white photography, sculpture, and pottery thrown on a hand wheel.

A transfer from Portland State College, Ms. Ward has been studying under the guidance of Evergreen Faculty Member E. Jackson Webb.
