FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 14, 1973

Artists from the eight counties of Southwestern Washington are invited to help create a slide archives at The Evergreen State College.

Members of the Evergreen Visual Environment Board are issuing a call to artists from Clark, Cowlitz, Gray's Harbor, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, Thurston and Wahkiakum counties to submit five or more slides of their current work for inclusion in the new Evergreen archives.

Student Doug Kahn, a Bremerton senior who serves as exhibits coordinator, said the slides will be used to select entrants to the first Southwestern Washington Invitational Exhibition to begin February 10 in the Evergreen gallery.

Persons wishing to have their slides considered for the show must submit them prior to January 15, 1974. All artists interested in having their work archived, should contact Kahn, at Evans Library Building Room 3402, The Evergreen State College, Olympia, Washington, 98505.
