Subject: Coordinator of First Peoples' Student Support Program

It is with great pleasure to announce that Nani Jackins Park will be the new Coordinator of First Peoples' Student support Program at First Peoples' Advising Services.

Nani is an Evergreen grad, class of 1988. Nani is not a stranger to student support services at Evergreen. Before her graduation she worked as a Peer Advisor for Enrollment Services and a Peer Support Counselor for First Peoples' Advising. After her graduation she served as Acting Director of KEY Student Services and Program Developer/Counselor for the Upward Bound Bridge Program. Nani when on to receive a Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology from Lewis & Clark College. After she received her Master degree she started her private practice and opened her own children's clothing store. Nani has also taught courses at Lewis & Clark and Centrelia College and has guest lectured in colleges throughout the Northwest. These are just a few of Nani's achievement, the rest too numerous to mention. However, I encourage you to stop by and welcome her as the new Coordinator of first Peoples' Student Support Program.
