Lynn Garner, a June graduate of The Evergreen State College, has been named assistant Director for TESC Student Activities. The appointment, effective September 16, was announced by Pete Steilberg, director of Evergreen Recreation and Campus Activities.

The position carries with it primary responsibility for fiscal management of Services and Activities fee-funded programs on the Evergreen campus. Ms. Garner, a Tocaman, assisted the former coordinator before he resigned last Spring.

A graduate of Franklin Pierce High School in Tacoma, Ms. Garner has worked for the F.P. School District, as a secretary for the Clover Park School District, and for Fort Steilacoom Community College. She most recently worked as a temporary employee in the Evergreen Security Office.
