

NEWS

The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98505

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 25, 1974

A free public lecture-film presentation is being offered at The Evergreen State College each Thursday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock in Lecture Hall One.

Evergreen Faculty Member Gordon Beck presents the evening lecture, always dealing with the topic "American Cinema Between the Wars (1919-1941)," which is accompanied by an appropriate full-length feature movie. The series began January 17 and will run through March 21.

###

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services

Sent to: KITN Jan. 21
KGY
KIRO
KING
KOMO

The Evergreen State College

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT (Please air through Jan. 26)

Students in the Latin America Studies Group at The Evergreen State College (in Olympia) are presenting a Northwest Symposium on Chile Friday, January 25, and Saturday, January 26.

The Symposium--first of its kind in the Northwest--is designed to provide a comprehensive academic treatment of a recent major international event--the overthrow and death of Chilean President Salvador Allende. Symposium events will include lectures, panel discussions, small workshops, movies, and cultural activities. The program runs from 9:30 a.m. through the evening both days and will be headquartered in the main lobby of the Evergreen Library Building. The Symposium is open to the public and is free of charge. Further details may be obtained by dialing 866-6300 (in Olympia).