EVERGREEN COLLEGE

VISITS SEATTLE

Prospective students, their parents, high school and college teachers, principals and counselors, and members of the general public in King County are invited to attend a special get-acquainted session with representatives of The Evergreen State College March 13 at the University Towers Hotel in Seattle. The program, entitled "The Evergreen State College Preview", will be held in the hotel's main ballroom and will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The preview, sponsored by Evergreen's Office of Admissions, is part of a continuing effort to take Evergreen to the people in various areas of Washington, according to Director of Admissions Ken Mayer.

Evergreen representatives will include admissions personnel, faculty members, students, financial aid officers, and student services personnel.

"Our basic idea is to share information about Evergreen's philosophy, current and future programs, and such services as financial aid, placement, Cooperative Education internships, counseling, veterans affairs and admissions procedures," Mayer said. "The meeting will be informal and there will be ample time for everyone to have questions answered concerning all aspects of study and campus life at Evergreen."

Refreshments will be served.

Other Evergreen Previews will be presented later in Tacoma, Olympia, Vancouver, and Spokane.
