

NEWS

The Evergreen State College

Olympia, Washington 98505 753-3125

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 11, 1972

Howard McCord, an award winning poet and professor of English at Bowling Green State University, Ohio, will present his works in the Mondays at Eight Series at 8 p.m. January 15 in the reference alcove of the Daniel J. Evans Library at The Evergreen State College.

Published in more than 60 magazines in the past 15 years, the 41-year-old poet received his bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at El Paso in 1957 and his master's degree from the University of Utah in 1958. He taught for 11 years at Washington State University, for two years at the University of Utah, and has been director of the Master of Fine Arts program at Bowling Green since 1971.

McCord has also published more than a dozen books and pamphlets and was awarded the D.H. Lawrence Fellowship in 1971, and the National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship in 1957. He was also named a Danforth Associate in 1968.

Also scheduled to appear at the Tumwater High School from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., January 18, McCord is sponsored by Eye-5, and his readings are free and open to the public.

-30-

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services