

Ronda Heard, widow of Donald G. Heard, a faculty member at The Evergreen State College who was killed in a highway accident last October, exchanges pleasantries with Evergreen President Charles J. McCann as she presents one of her late husband's paintings to the college. The painting, entitled "Golden Orb", was one of Donald Heard's favorites. Painted in 1970, "Golden Orb" expresses the artist's "larger view of the planet Earth through symbolic means," Mrs. Heard said. "Golden Orb" and numerous other of Heard's art works are on exhibit at the Evergreen Art Gallery until April 16. Gallery hours are from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., week days, and from noon to 5 p.m. week ends.
