FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 22, 1970

Three Seattle firms have submitted the apparent low bids for supplying carpeting, draperies and window shades for the library building now under construction on the campus of The Evergreen State College at Olympia.

Frederick and Nelson bid $138,241 to carpet the building; J. K. Gill Company $10,468 to supply draperies; and Northwest Interiors, Inc. $2,946.50 to provide window shades.

Bids, opened by the college's department of purchasing, were referred to staff facilities planners and project architects Durham, Anderson and Freed of Seattle for review prior to a possible later contract award by the Board of Trustees.
