Singer Linda Waterfall and the Peace, Bread and Land band headline a May 15 benefit concert beginning at 3 p.m. on the fourth floor of The Evergreen State College Library. Proceeds from the Sunday program go towards Evergreen's Organic Farm.

Waterfall, a local singer, records for Windham Hill records and plays both acoustic guitar and piano. The Peace, Bread and Land trio plays blues, country and original music on acoustic guitar, base and banjo.

Tickets for the concert are on sale now at Rainy Day Records, Middle Earth Mercantile and Evergreen's College Activities Building. They're $2 in advance; $2.50 at the door.
