The Northwest Brass Quintet, a new Seattle-based chamber ensemble, will perform in concert at The Evergreen State College May 9, beginning at 2 p.m. on the fourth floor of the Evans Library Building.

The ensemble, which serves as Brass Quintet-in-residence at the Cornish School of Allied Arts, will perform works by Bach, Holborne, Gabrieli, Hovhaness, and Young.

Members of the group include Jeff Cole and Richard Pressley on trumpets; Scott Wilson, French horn; Michael Mooney, trombone; and Roger Rocco, tuba. Their concert, second in a series of Sunday afternoon performances sponsored by the Evergreen Gig Commission during the month of May, costs $1.50 for senior citizens and students and $2 for the general public. Children under five are free.
