Music students from the Olympia area are invited to participate in a two-hour workshop on jazz improvisation and vibes taught by recording artist Gary Burton, March 3 from 2 to 4 p.m. on the fourth floor of The Evergreen State College Library Building.

Burton, regarded as the leading vibraharpist in the nation, is a Grammy award winner who gained fame as a soloist on the vibraharp performing with jazz artists George Shearing and Stan Getz. The founder of the popular group, the Gary Burton Quintet, is also appearing at The Greenwood Inn March 4 at 8 p.m.

Admission to this Evergreen workshop, designed primarily for music students, is $1. Participants will be asked to pay at the door.
