Musical entertainment will be offered aplenty at Evergreen this week. Students in the Contemporary Music and Sound Seminar will launch the week with a concert tomorrow (Tuesday) beginning at 8 p.m. in Lecture Hall One. The program, entitled "Eight Easy Pieces" will be under the direction of Faculty Member William Winden.

Wednesday night is the date for the final spring quarter concert of the Evergreen Jazz Ensemble and Chamber Singers. Directed by Faculty Member Don Chan, the group, which includes many Olympians, will present a wide variety of selections beginning at 8 in the main foyer of the Library.

Mary McCann Zamora will present her final vocal recital Thursday night at 8 in the Library. Accompanied by Judi Wright, Ms. Zamora will present selections from "La Boheme" and the "Ballad of Baby Doe."

And finally, graduation will conclude Spring Quarter activities. <sup>Saturday</sup> Commencement ceremonies for more than 200 seniors will begin at 2 p.m. on the central campus plaza, weather permitting. Featured speakers will be Evergreen Vice Presidents David Barry and E. J. Shoben Jr.
