The Jazz Ensemble and Chamber Singers from The Evergreen State College will present three concerts in the Vancouver-Portland area May 2.

The two Evergreen groups are scheduled to appear at Hudson's Bay High School in Vancouver at 9:15 a.m., at Catlin Gable High School in Portland at noon, and in Geiser Hall at Clark College at 8 p.m.

Directed by Evergreen Faculty Member Don Chan, the 21-member Jazz Ensemble will perform compositions by Thad Jones, Ken Richman and by student composers from North Texas State University.

The 35 Chamber Singers will perform a jazz liturgy for chorus written by Chan, as well as works of Leonard Bernstein and Peter Schieckele.
