William B. Slaymaker, a 27-year-old Viet Nam veteran, has been named coordinator of the newly established Veterans Affairs Office at The Evergreen State College.

Slaymaker, a fourth-year student at Evergreen, will have prime responsibility for establishing an information clearinghouse for veterans, who comprise more than ten per cent of Evergreen's enrollment. His other responsibilities include coordination of college services which are available to veterans, as well as development of outreach programs, recruitment of veterans, and development of programs to prepare educationally disadvantaged veterans for post-secondary education.

A graduate of North Seattle Community College, Slaymaker served in the U.S. Navy and completed two tours of duty in Viet Nam. He has worked in the Counseling Office at NSCC and for The Boeing Company in Renton.
