Art works by children in thirteen Olympia-area elementary schools will be exhibited in The Evergreen State College art gallery March 16.

The exhibit, which will be on display for a month, will include works from both Tumwater and Olympia schools. Eve Shaw, an Evergreen student in the Image and Idea Coordinated Studies program, is organizing the show with the assistance of Helen Swanberg of the Olympia School District; Bob Barclift, principal of Peter G. Schmidt Elementary; Burt Backman, principal of Michael T. Simmons, Elementary, and William Thompson, principal of East Olympia Elementary.

The show is sponsored by the Evergreen visual Environmental Board.
