The Evergreen State College
Olympia, Washington 98501

April 4, 1977

Robert J. Flowers, 34, a Seattle banker, has this morning been appointed to The Evergreen State College Board of Trustees for a six-year term effective immediately through March 14, 1983. He replaces Trustee Tom Dixon, whose term expired last month.

Flowers, a former University of Washington basketball star, currently serves as assistant manager of income property investment for Washington Mutual Savings Bank in Seattle. He formerly served with the Office of the Governor at the Washington State Multi-Service Center in Seattle and with the Seattle Mayor's Office.

A Vietnam veteran, Flowers was named athlete scholar of the year while attending the University, where he earned both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree. His wife Micki is a former newswoman for KIRO Television in Seattle. They have three young daughters.

The trustees are next scheduled to meet April 21, at 10:30 a.m. in Library 3112.
