The Evergreen State College Chamber Singers and Jazz Ensemble will combine talents April 27 for the annual Spring Quarter concert, beginning at 8 p.m. in the main lobby of the Evans Library Building.

Directed by Faculty Member Donald Chan, the 16-member Chamber Singers will offer three historical songs from the American Revolution, a piece by contemporary American composer Samuel Barber, and a "Jazz Contada for Chorus and Jazz Trio."

The 20-member Jazz Ensemble will feature vocalist Linda Cox, a first-year Evergreen student from Spokane, and performance of two works by 17-year-old Everett arranger Tim Kelly.

The hour and a half concert is free and open to the public.
