

NEWS

The Evergreen State College

Olympia, Washington 98505

~~753-2780~~

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 18, 1972

Walter and Mary Hamady, owners and operators of The Perishable Press Limited at Mount Horeb, Wisconsin, will visit the Puget Sound area April 24-28 under sponsorship of the Interstate Five (Eye 5) Traveling Artists series.

During their visit to various member educational institutions in the Eye 5 project, the Hamadys will conduct a series of workshops on papermaking, printing, and poetry. The schedule calls for the following appearances:

April 24 (morning) at St. Martin's College; (afternoon) at The Evergreen State College.

April 25 (morning) at The Evergreen State College; (afternoon) at the Undergraduate Library, University of Washington.

April 26 (all day) at The Evergreen State College.

April 27 (all day) at The Evergreen State College.

April 28 (morning) at The Evergreen State College; (afternoon) at Pacific Lutheran University.

Hamady, an Associate Professor of Art at the University of Wisconsin also will have several of his works on display in the second floor reference area of the Daniel J. Evans Library at Evergreen during his Northwest visit.

The Hamadys' Perishable Press Limited publishes a wide variety of materials, all printed on home made paper. Perishable Press products twice have been selected for inclusion in the American Institute of Graphics' 50 Best Books List, in 1967 and 1969

####

Dick Nichols, Director
Information Services